

Dear Educator,

It is a pleasure to inform you about Tender Roots' very first workshop for children, on Indian Classical Dance. Please find the details below. Do let us know in case you would like some of your students to attend, and also please do share the information with parents and others who might be interested ! Also, a big thank you for your interest and enthusiasm throughout the past academic year.

Looking forward to a vibrant arts-filled year ahead !

Thanks and Regards,

The Tender Roots Team.

Nritya - Katha

A rare chance for kids to discover the world of Indian Classical dance and play with the vibrant mudras and postures across 8 classical dances, in a fun and engaging session ! :)

Kids will learn about the history, context, vocabulary, inter-relationships, costumes etc. of the 8 Classical Dances of India and be challenged to creatively explore this information in an interactive session.

Where: Bal Gandharva Rang Mandir, Bandra (W)
When: 21st May, 10 AM
Who: Guru Parwati Dutta
How: Register on bookmyshow or call us at +91 9870408090

Parwati Dutta

For this workshop, we have invited the very talented and versatile Parwati Dutta, the Director of Mahagami Gurukul. She is a dancer, guru and arts administrator who has undergone years of rigorous training in Kathak and Odissi under the great masters like Pt. Birju Maharaj, Guru Kelucharan Mohapatra and Guru Madhavi Mudgal, with whose guidance she has performed internationally.

Her knowledge is barely limited to these two dance forms - she carries a deep knowledge of all the classical dance forms of India has even authored a delightful book for children on the various styles of Indian Classical Dance. She also has years of path-breaking work in education and awareness initiatives in the field of culture and is the perfect person to take Mumbai's young kids on an engaging journey of discovering and experimenting with dance.

We look forward to seeing you and your children on 21st May !
